Cozy & Creative Times at Global Roots Summer Camp

By Stephanie Muñoz, Lead Teacher at Global Roots

Photographs provided by Jason Koski

A time of less structure, summertime brings memories of outdoor exploring and endless free play. At Global Roots’ summer camp, we aim to bring that to families new and familiar. For our second year, we welcomed 13 children with the goal of providing a place for families to connect and play. New students were excited to explore our space and returning students were so happy to be
